

Alone? On a Friday night? No, not these girls. Miyu was snuggled up next to her new girlfriend Kaitlyn while they watched funny clips on YouTube with Kaitlyn's phone. They'd been sharing the bottom bunk for a few weeks now with the top bunk being used as extra storage for clothing and other crap they couldn't fit in the small closet space next to their dorm room door.

So far, the only people on campus that knew that Miyu and Kaitlyn were a thing was each other, and the rest of their gang. Kaitlyn had made it weird during their last big get-together when all five of them were present. She'd just blurted it out over pizza that she and Miyu were now dating. That followed a string of congratulations that ended with Miyu eating her girlfriend out while Kevin crammed his knot up the horse's ass.

Her parents knew, too, since she'd told them. Now she regretted telling them.

Of course, no one but their little friend group knew about the sexcapades that they got up to, but her parents were so traditional, and had so many unfair expectations of their daughter, that she was afraid to tell them too much about what she was doing on campus outside of what they could see in a photograph. Now, not only was she dating another girl, but a horse, and not even an Asian horse!

They so badly wanted her to settle down just like they had done with a 'nice Asian cat', and they'd gotten so mad at her when she defied them and started dating Kaitlyn. They just assumed she was doing it to piss them off, like a big 'fuck you'. And this wasn't a surprise. She'd been a rebel since high school, and they'd even acted accusatory when they'd first seen a photo of Kevin.

They'd seen her post a photo on Facebook hugging Kevin in a totally nonsexual way that wouldn't have tipped anyone off about her private sex life. Of course, when that photo had been taken, she was throttling Kevin like crazy every chance she got, but as far as her parents knew they were just two college kids hugging in a photo, and from that photo alone they assumed their rebellious daughter was throttling a canine every chance she got just to spite her parents.

And they were absolutely right, but she was never going to tell them that!

For the moment, she and her parents weren't on good speaking terms. It was very tense, and if it wasn't for the scholarships she'd won they might have had the power to threaten her education by yanking away her tuition. Too bad! Their rebel of a daughter had a perfect GPA and didn't have to worry about her tuition!

"Didn't Reese want you to pose for him next week?" the cat asked.

Her brain was wandering to dark places tonight when they should have been happy from the silly compilation of clips Kaitlyn had found while browsing her phone.

"Yeah, why?" the horse replied.

"I couldn't remember. Try to get him to pick a time when Kevin will be there so I can come with." She told her.

Kaitlyn turned her head and planted a kiss on top of Miyu's head.

Despite the fact that they were now officially a couple, the two girls never let go of their mutual relationship with Kevin and Reese. Reese was their silly voyeur and simp, and Kevin was their handsome stud. If they weren't getting fucked stupid by the golden retriever, they were posing naked for Reese while he held a camera or a pencil.

Miyu didn't even mind Reese's breast fetish, or Kaitlyn letting the dog grope her boobs. Kaitlyn had incredible tits, massive and heavy, and filled with milk.

The group of five friends were probably the kinkiest clique of college students that had ever attended the University of San Fernando. Even Lauren, the modest tomboy, was drawn into their lecherous cabal. With her becoming the fifth member of their team she was officially the third member of Kevin's harem of women.

What had started it all was Miyu, she was the culprit. If she hadn't gotten fed up with Kevin being indecisive, and finally pushed the dog into making moves on her in the library that fateful day... she'd have never gotten fucked into a coma on his dorm room floor. She would have never gossiped all the juicy details to Kaitlyn. She would have never nudged her now girlfriend into 'breaking the ice' with Kevin, so that the horse could let off some much needed steam.

Miyu, the rebellious youth fighting against the tyranny of her parent's strict upbringing, had really started it all.

"I love you." Kaitlyn interrupted the cat's thoughts.

"I love you, too." She replied and scooted herself up a bit and made moves to kiss her girlfriend.

Kaitlyn reciprocated, kissing her back, and they let the gesture linger.

"I'll sweet talk Reese for you, make sure we both get a piece of Kevin." The equine replied with a smile, her eyes looking like she needed to sleep, but she always looked that way. Her abuse of caffeine and her terrible sleep schedule left her a zombie every day, living on even more caffeine to keep herself going.

The only time Miyu had ever seen her wake up in the morning looking refreshed was when she'd actually get a good, sound, night's sleep. And 90% or more of that restful sleep came from Kevin fucking the hell out of her until she passed out into a coma. Miyu was the same, the best sleep she'd ever get was after their golden boy wore her out.

She wondered if Lauren was the same, she didn't know. The Bernese was a sporty girl, trained almost every single day for soccer, so maybe it was different for her.

"Promise Reese you'll let him suck on your titties. That'll have him jumping through hoops for you." She teased, groping her girlfriend's breast a little.

"I still haven't asked Lauren if she's ok with that." Kaitlyn replied.

"They aren't dating."

"Yeah, I know, but I think Kevin is trying to get them to date. He's been trying to hook them up."

"What a bull Kevin is, trying to hook his cuck up with the girl of his dreams." Miyu commented.

“Don’t be mean to Reese.” She scolded back.

“I’m not! He’s a cuck! I don’t think he’s offended if I point it out.”

“Still! He might!” Kaitlyn countered. Miyu groaned and gave in.

“Ok, I won’t be mean to him.” She replied.

Kaitlyn kissed her again, but this time on the cheek since that was the most available spot on the cat’s face for the horse to reach with her lips.

“I don’t think Lauren will care. She literally let Reese film Kevin cram his knot in her pussy. Reese has that video on his phone.” Miyu giggled. “I think they are comfortable with each other fooling around even if they started dating.

“I guess so. That was such a good video.” Kaitlyn said.

“It really is! I think it’s hotter that it’s Lauren. Took FOREVER for her to finally come around to joining in.”

“Oh, I know, I’m so glad I didn’t give up on her. With three of us around to keep him busy now I’ve actually been able to work normal to class again.” Kaitlyn replied.

Miyu started to laugh. With Kevin’s sexual energy being divided between three women instead of two their bodies were all given a lot more time to recover between sessions. Kevin was such a sexual beast, like he just could keep on going if he really set his mind to it.

“I love you.” Miyu said.

“Love you, too.” Kaitlyn replied.

She snuggled against her girlfriend, the cat running her hand under the horse’s nightshirt to fondle one of her enormous tits. When she found a nipple she fingered it, running the fingertip in a circle around her nipple before finding the edge of her areola where skin became fur. She had huge nipples, and they were plump tonight.

“You full?” She asked.

“Probably. You can check if you want.” Kaitlyn told her.

Miyu shifted, pulling her petite body on top of her tall, skinny girlfriend, and tugged up on the front of her shirt until she had it pulled up and over her breasts. Those huge tits hung heavily on her chest, Miyu’s hands coming to rest over the other girl’s nipples. Her palms were barely large enough to hide the full diameter of Kaitlyn’s areola.

Miyu had the tiniest tits, meaning the two girls were opposites. One short, one tall. One busty, the other just about flat. So many contrasts drew these two magnets together.

The cat scooted down her girlfriend's body until she could comfortably lean down over the horse's tits, her hands drawing one big nipple to her mouth. She began to gently suckle at her lady's teat, swirling her tongue around until she caught the first hint of flavor.

Kaitlyn's tits were always making milk. The skinny beanpole of a girl had some kind of hormone issue, leaving her to crank out milk like she was preggers. It apparently started when she hit puberty and suddenly became the bustiest girl in the whole school, including all the women in the faculty. The poor thing had been teased so much.

Miyu teased her, too, but with affection. She started sucking on her girlfriend's breast. She did this pretty often now.

After Kevin had started fucking both of them, the girls had begun to open up more and more to each other. They'd already been friends and roommates, but the raw sexual energy Kevin unleashed on them gave them more to talk about, kept them horny, and eventually led to them fooling around with each other. That'd been what did it, what got them to realize that they were totally bisexual.

Who knew watching another girl get crammed full of dick would teach you that you, too, loved pussy as much as a straight guy?

Milk was flowing into her mouth now, and Miyu gently nursed from her girlfriend, the horse putting away her phone and wrapped the cat in her arms. For her, it felt nice letting off 'steam'. Having full breasts left them feeling tender, so getting a chance to empty them was nice.

Miyu was lucky she wasn't lactose intolerant. That was more common amongst Asians, so she counted herself fortunate.

"You're such a stereotype, kitten." Kaitlyn teased.

She popped off her girlfriend's nipple to say, 'So?'

The horse giggled, and then hummed with delight as Miyu slipped one of her hands down between them to snake it between the horse's thighs. As she started fingering her girlfriend she kept sucking on that fat tit.

"Thank you for being my girl." Kaitlyn whispered, drawing one of her hands up to her head, running fingers through Miyu's black locks.

The cat hummed back, snuggling more against her girl, slipping her fingers wetly between her girlfriend's lips as milk continued to flow down her throat. Kaitlyn started spreading her legs for her, making it easier to please her.

"I love you." She said, stroking her hand over her hair, Kaitlyn's free hand rubbing at Miyu's shoulder.

Miyu hummed again in reply, the cat beginning to purr, the rumble of it vibrating through the other girl's breast. After a few more minutes Kaitlyn nudged the cat away, her lips popping off a wet nipple. Kaitlyn wanted another kiss, and Miyu crawled up her body and their lips met.

Kaitlyn would have been able to taste herself on Miyu's tongue, a mouthful of milk still resting in her mouth as they shared it between each other while they kissed. They kissed a while longer until the horse shifted her body, rolling them both over until the cat was getting squished under two huge tits, her bigger girlfriend pinning her to the small bed.

"My turn." Kaitlyn told her and started scooting her way down. Miyu scooted herself up at the same time, making it easier for the horse to dip her head down to the cat's crotch, her hands finding the sides of her thong to slip them down her slender legs.

When the horse began to eat her out, Miyu loudly purred, stripping off her tank top and tossing it to the floor while Kaitlyn made a meal out of the cat's pussy.

Neither girl had ever eaten another woman out until they started fooling around with each other. They'd both learned to get good at it, figuring out what they both liked, and giving themselves fully to the other's pleasure. They both made sure the other was satisfied. It was hard work, especially with Kevin making it look easy whenever he fucked them into a girl shaped crater in a mattress.

Kaitlyn did what Kevin liked to do, which was slipping two fingers into Miyu's pussy and hooking them just right. She found the spot and started pressing. She didn't quite do it the same as Kevin, the horse giving her girlfriend a B+ performance compared to Kevin's A+. It wasn't fair to compare each other to Kevin, but his was a good baseline to use if they wanted to improve their lovemaking.

The horse did a good job, drawing Miyu closer and closer to a climax until the purring kitten gasped and began to shiver. Her orgasms with Kaitlyn were always gentler than the ones with Kevin, but that was ok. It was good to have variety, and the gentleness of her lovemaking with Kaitlyn was a reflection of Kaitlyn herself. She was a sweetheart, a gentle giant that towered over her girlfriend with her impressive height. Wouldn't hurt a fly.

Let Kevin be the semi-truck that barreled down the street like an unstoppable force. He had his place in their lives, and then they had each other. Each filling their respective roles and fulfilling each other's respective needs. Even Reese had his part to play, the wag of his tail alone while he filmed them or drew them, giving all three girls an ego boost.

'Yeah, we're hot', as silly as it was. They WERE hot.

Kaitlyn came up for air, licking her lips clean as she crawled back up to kiss her girlfriend on the lips. That kiss lingered for a while as Miyu calmed down from her peak, purring into the horse's mouth until they were both satisfied.

"You ready?" She asked her, the cat wondering if her girlfriend wanted a turn to get eaten out.

"Go easy on me this time." She replied.

Miyu giggled and the two women swapped places with the cat soon descending onto her girlfriend's petals. Her feline tongue was soft, but naturally textured. A unique trait that many cats used to great effect whenever they stepped into the bedroom.

While Miyu carefully licked across Kaitlyn's folds the equine squirmed, growing weak in the knees. Licking, tasting, and fingering, Miyu was good at all of that, even mimicking Kevin's tricks same as Kaitlyn had done.

With her slender hands she easily worked her fingertips inside and found her girlfriend's button, swirling her tongue around her clit at the same time, suckling on the nub in turns to give the girl a chance to breathe. Kaitlyn was a competent B+ at eating pussy, but Miyu was a straight A student.

Kaitlyn drew her hands to her face and moaned, biting her lip.

"G-go easy, kitten." She whined, squirming more. Miyu eased back with her tongue, leaving only her fingers to touch the other girl.

She pushed, letting her hand sink a little deeper, making Kaitlyn groan. The cat's slender hand sank a little more, and then she was inside her girlfriend, balling her hand into a fist.

"Oh, God." The horse exhaled, Miyu then gently twisting her fist about inside the girl, letting her knuckles press about all around the horse's insides.

"Love you." Miyu purred and planted a single kiss over her girl's clit.

"I love you, too, kitten, God." The other girl panted, squirming harder as Miyu turned her kiss into another bout of swirling tongue. She let her tongue dance about her girlfriend's sensitive button until the horse began to shiver, then her legs started twitching. When she popped her cork, it happened suddenly. Kaitlyn shouted, straightening out her legs for a brief moment as her back arched, then she wrapped her legs around Miyu and clung tight as the cat continued to rapidly feast on her girl's pussy.

"Baby, kitten!" She pleaded, throwing her hands down to Miyu's head, running her fingers through her hair and trying to push her aside. Miyu slowly eased up, letting her lovely woman ease down from her climax. When the horse sagged flat to the bed the cat pulled her hand free of her pussy and started crawling back up her skinny body until her head was nestled between Kaitlyn's soft tits.

"I wanted you to go easy." The girl panted, almost like laughter.

"I did. Want me to try again to remind you what going hard feels like?" Miyu teased her, but Kaitlyn wrapped her arms around her and squeezed her tight.

"No, I remember what it's like. You've got a mouth like Kevin has a dick." She laughed.

"I hope my mouth tastes better than his dick." Miyu teased.

"Both are pretty good." Kaitlyn replied, drawing her hands up to ruffle Miyu's hair.

"Want me to nurse on that other tit?" Miyu asked, and Kaitlyn nodded. It wouldn't be good to let one tit hang heavier than the other. Miyu shifted, pulling the other breast close before wrapping her lips around the nipple.

Kaitlyn listened to her purr while running her fingers through her hair.

"I'll bully Reese into making sure Kevin is there, and we can have some fun. Maybe Tuesday will be good." The horse said, Miyu humming to her in reply while she drew out her girlfriend's delicious milk.

"And I'll bully Lauren, too. If I helped convince her to sleep with Kevin, then maybe I can convince her to date Reese. They'd be a cute couple." She continued.

"They would." Miyu agreed, before returning her lips to her girlfriend's teat.

What a kinky fivesome they really were. Two straight girls that got fucked into being bisexual by watching each other take dick, a modest and prude tomboy who lost her virginity while her childhood friend watched, three girls that all filmed amateur pornos while getting fucked by the same guy they all shared with each other, and a total cuck that gets off by playing voyeur to his best friend fucking three hot girls.

They were such a hot mess of people, but it was fun. Miyu didn't have to ask if any of them looked forward to their next get-together. The answer was always an obvious yes!
